Theater Audience Calmly Leaves the Burning Building.

New York, Feb. 20.—E. L. Popper, head usher at the Newark theater, on Market street, Newark, N. J., just before the close of the first act of "Way Down East," last night, discovered smoke in the cellar in the front part of the building. The theater was crowded, all the seats in the orchestra, balcony and gallery being occupied. The usher at once informed Manager Lee Ottolengui, who went to the back of the stage and summoned Fireman Lavery, of No. 13 engine company, who was on duty.

Lavery followed Ottolengui, and they found fire blazing among the beams under the floor of the main lobby entrance. Lavery turned on a stream from an extinguisher, without effect.

"It's defective insulation," he said, "and I will have to send in an alarm." "Give me a minute or two," said Ottolengui, "so that I can clear the house without a panic."

The manager waited one minute until the curtain was rung down on the act, then went before the audience.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said calmly, "smoke has been discovered somewhere in the building. There is no danger, but we haven't been able to trace its source. For precaution's sake we have decided it best to clear the theater. Please leave quietly. There is absolutely no cause for alarm, so kindly be as orderly as possible."

The audience was calm under the inspiration and example of Ottolengui, and moved in orderly fashion toward the doors.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E.
